

JANUARY 2021

President's Message

Happy 2021! I am honored for the opportunity to serve as the APAOG interim President. With so much going on around the country, I vow to do my part to advance the role of women's health PAs and improving growth opportunities. I have been fortunate to have ten years of women's health experience in New York before moving to Florida, where I continue to care for women. I firmly believe that PAs are well-suited for the role of women's medical and surgical management in all stages of life. We are well prepared and ready to care for adolescents with irregular cycles, laboring patients with high-risk pregnancies, and even postmenopausal women with symptoms, to name a few. My goal as President is to identify opportunities for women's health PAs or those seeking to enter the field. The process starts with preceptorship prospects, educational webinars and conferences, and ultimately with a Fellowship program to show our preparedness. With your guidance and support, we can advocate for all our members and provide a much-needed community and progression.

- Melissa Rodriguez, PA-C
